

'The Great Buffalo Hunt'

Stage 5

Adobe Walls

You stop by the trading post at Adobe Walls to resupply and get some liquor. All goes well until hundreds of angry Indigenous Aborigines attack at dawn. Plus you have a wicked headache and you left your lever rifle out in the wagon!

ORDER:

Shotgun: open and empty, staged on table in left door, 4+ rounds

Single Shot Rifle: 4 rounds, chamber empty, staged on table in right door

2 Pistols: 5 rounds each, hammers down on empty chambers, holstered

ACTION:

Shooter starts standing in front of left window with hands on bars in window. When ready say,

"They looked pissed!"

At the beep, move to the left door, retrieve your shotgun and proceed knocking down all four shotgun targets. Make shotgun safe on table in left door. Move to the right door and with the single shot rifle engage the four rifle targets once each. Make single shot rifle safe on table in right door. Engage the four pistol targets at least once each with first five rounds. Repeat the instructions for the second five rounds.
